

comic strip:

Criteria 1: Composition (10 pts)

- Do you have a main character and supporting characters in your strip?
- Are your characters detailed?
- Was the strip 4 to 6 panels long?

Criteria 2: Elements of Art (10 pts)

- SCENES: Did you fill the entire space.
- Is there a foreground, middle ground, and back ground in each scene. If there isn't, is it because you took a unique angle to the scene.

Criteria 3: Process (10 pts)

- You completed the story board in order to plan your final comic strip.
- Is there a story told through your panels? Are the panels in a logical format to give flow to your narrative?

Criteria 4: Craftsmanship (10 pts)

- There is clear evidence that you took your time and executed your project neatly with no erase marks.

Criteria 5: Difficulty (10pts)

- You gave your best effort and created a work of art that shows progress and willingness to improve.
