Incomplete.	I did not complete my painting using enough layers to create crisp, even layers of color.	There are some areas of my painting where there are not enough layers of paint. I need to improve on my technique to get even layers of paint on my canvas.	There are some areas where my painting technique could be improved. However, my project shows enough layers and my values/colors are not muddy.	My painting was completed with enough even layers of paint to create crisp lines in between my values and patterned background. I understand what "good painting" technique is and will continue to improve.
